

The Hall of Honor is a program sponsored by the Danvers Educational Enrichment Partnership (DEEP). The objectives of The Hall of Honor are threefold:

- ❖ To provide role models for students by honoring former students who have distinguished themselves;
- ❖ To create excitement about education in the Danvers Public Schools;
- ❖ To honor those educators and friends who have made extraordinary contributions to public education in Danvers.

Honorees are chosen and honored each year in three categories: Former Danvers Student, Former Danvers Educator, and Friend of Danvers Schools. Plaques are hung at Danvers High School to honor the inductees.

Nomination Form

Honorees will be selected based upon extraordinary fidelity, honor and service to the Danvers Public Schools, their community, their profession, or the United States.
